About the Center for Real Estate and Finance at Cornell University

The Center for Real Estate and Finance, established in 2009, is the foremost clearinghouse for hospitality real estate and finance information. Defined by its intellectual capital, industry experience, and rigorous academics, the center is respected as a leader of real estate and finance. Built on a tradition of quality research in the hospitality industry and a growing real estate and finance faculty, the center is at the forefront of research in all areas of commercial real estate—from studying the behavior of real estate assets in investment portfolios to understanding real estate capital markets and science of hedging real estate risk.

About the International Council of Shopping Centers

Founded in 1957, the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) is the global trade association of the shopping center industry. Its more than 70,000 members in over 100 countries include shopping center owners, developers, managers, investors, retailers, brokers, academics, and public officials. The shopping center industry is essential to economic development and opportunity. They are a significant job creator, driver of GDP, and critical revenue source for the communities they serve through the collection of sales taxes and the payment of property taxes. These taxes fund important municipal services like firefighters, police officers, school services, and infrastructure like roadways and parks. Shopping centers aren’t only fiscal engines however; they are integral to the social fabric of their communities by providing a central place to congregate with friends and family, discuss community matters, and participate in and encourage philanthropic endeavors.
I would like to offer a warm welcome to the teams, judges, and guests to the 2nd Annual ICSC Cornell International Retail Real Estate Case Competition. I am proud to be partnering with the International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC) on this exciting endeavor. ICSC is a global leader in the retail industry and this collaboration is an important step toward promoting real estate education within the retail sector for future leaders in the industry.

This event aims to connect students with industry leaders by providing an authentic experience for the students. The student teams participating in the competition represent the future of the industry. While the judges are tasked to select the top team among all teams, their main purpose is to provide the students with the opportunity to learn from them. I am extremely grateful to our judges who are so willing to share their knowledge and coach the students. I hope everyone present for the competition enjoys this unique educational experience.

Congratulations and best wishes for success to all participating teams.
The Talent Development Pavilion will offer a unique combination of exhibits, information sessions and professional development services for individuals at all stages of their careers.

Ronald Altoon provides advisory services to capital market entities, land owners, and real estate development companies relative to defining a vision for their real estate investment, strategizing the process to implement it, selecting the appropriate design team to produce it, and facilitating the interaction between them to optimize the outcome in time expended and asset enhancement.

Prior to founding ALTOON | Strategic, for 30 years he was Founding Design Partner of Altoon Partners, a Los Angeles, Amsterdam, and Shanghai based planning, urban design, and architectural firm. His experience includes commercial mixed-use, transit-oriented, higher education, residential and historic preservation projects in 46 countries. His projects have received over 100 awards for design excellence.

Altoon lectures globally for the real estate industry and university programs, and is the author of seven books. He was the first practicing architect elected a Trustee of the International Council of Shopping Centers in its 59-year history. He has served ICSC in many capacities, including teaching and lectures. Altoon is a former National President of The American Institute of Architects (AIA) and served as Chair of the Urban Land Institute (ULI) Los Angeles District Council.

Ronald Altoon holds a Bachelor of Architecture from the University of Southern California, and a Master of Architecture from the University of Pennsylvania where he studied with AIA Gold Medalist Louis Kahn and noted pioneering landscape-ecologist Ian McHarg.
Andrew holds a Bachelor of Commerce from University of Wollongong Australia and is a Graduate and Alumnus of Stanford University.

Andrew has held various state and national management positions with Coles Myer, Colgate Palmolive, Lend Lease and Westfield Holdings; he has over 20 years of experience in retail asset management and development.

Commencing his career in retail property in 1992 with Lend Lease Andrew held positions encompassing the management, leasing and marketing of shopping centres including National Marketing Manager with responsibility for the marketing of 19 shopping centres across Australia with sales in excess of $3.5 Billion and foot traffic in excess 150 million customers per annum.

In 2000 Andrew joined Westfield Holdings where he managed and worked on the planning of the $100 million redevelopment of Westfield Liverpool. In 2003 he was seconded from Westfield, as part of the joint venture agreement with Suria KLCC (SKLCC) Malaysia, to the role of General Manager SKLCC. In this role Andrew lead the SKLCC team in successfully expanding and remixing SKLCC.

In January 2007 he resigned from Westfield and was appointed Chief Executive Officer of Suria KLCC and a member of the Management Committee of KLCC Property Holdings Berhad. KLCC has over USD$5 billion assets under management, including office, hotel and retail assets, including over USD$2.0 billion of retail assets in urban and rural Malaysia. In January 2014 Andrew was appointed Executive Director of SKLCC.

Andrew has been a member of the International Council of Shopping Centres, (ICSC) for twelve years. During this time he has actively pursued the growth of education in South East Asia. He is Global Trustee and Executive Board Member of ICSC, Chairman of the ICSC Asia Pacific Advisory Board and Malaysian Director of ICSC.

Additionally, she has been active on numerous ICSC committees and conference panels.
Duane Stiller has always believed in making Florida’s places better. He founded Woolbright in 1985, and from the beginning he established industry knowledge, personal service and innovation as core values for the Woolbright team. Mr. Stiller built Woolbright Development into one of the fastest growing retail real estate companies in Florida, and during the last decade the firm acquired 56 retail projects totaling 8.5 million square feet. Historically, Woolbright’s typical projects consisted of redevelopments of existing shopping centers located in Florida’s densely populated metro areas. Recently, ground-up developments have been incorporated into the Woolbright project mix and this successful combination has helped make Woolbright Development one of the largest acquirers, managers and top 10 owners of retail real estate in Florida.

Duane Stiller was born in Syracuse, NY and moved to Florida in 1970 where he has been a keen observer and active participant in Florida’s real estate market for more than three decades. After graduating from the Cornell University College of Engineering, Mr. Stiller began his career with Traveler’s Asset Management International Corporation as director of property management. He is a licensed real estate broker and licensed general contractor. Mr. Stiller is a visiting Professor at Cornell University and frequent lecturer at University of Florida and Florida State University.

Duane Stiller is proud to call Boca Raton, Florida home where he resides with his wife, Dalia, an architect, art enthusiast and Trustee at Cornell University, and his daughter, Cristina, a Cornell University student and aspiring journalist and writer.
John Swagerty, Senior Vice President for Development, joined Acadia Realty Trust in 2011 and oversees all value-add development activities across Acadia’s core and fund operating platforms, which include street-retail properties and suburban shopping centers. Mr. Swagerty is responsible for all aspects of the value-add process, including entitlements and permitting, concept design, leasing and construction coordination, and financial projections and reporting. Prior to Acadia, Mr. Swagerty served as Vice President of Retail Development for Forest City Enterprises, overseeing the development process of large-scale, complex urban projects. Mr. Swagerty received a BA from Yale University and a M.S. in Real Estate Development from New York University.
